

What is the difference between Full Virtual & In-Person Learning?

Full Virtual Students learn from home 5 days each week	In-Person Students go to school 4 days each week and learn from home 1 day each week
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 4 days each week, students will join their classmates on the computer via Zoom. They will sign into Zoom as they currently do and watch their teacher, who will be teaching to the students in the classroom and at home at the same time. Students will also have some independent assignments to complete throughout the day, as they would in the “normal” classroom setting. It is important to note that instruction will be similar but will have some changes and adjustments given there will be students in the classroom and at home. The teacher will direct their attention to both the students at home and the students physically present in class. In addition, there will be regularly scheduled check-in opportunities for the students at home to ask questions and engage in discussions. • 1 day each week (Friday), all students will be learning from home together as they do currently.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 4 days each week (Monday through Thursday), students will go to school and learn in the classroom with their teacher and classmates both at home and at school. • 1 day each week (Friday), all students will be learning from as they do currently
